BODEGA ZEMLIA DE LAS CASUARINAS WINES

A small cellar with great wines and deep passion. In ancient places, “zemlia” means both “earth” and “land”, soul of a nation, honoring the infinite Argentinian lands, the “terroir” of Mendoza, on the eastern slopes of the Andes. Bodega Zemlia de Las Casuarinas produces mostly Malbec-based red wines, Malbec (Cot) being an argentinian staple, already obtained numerous awards in renowned contests, both in Argentina and abroad, despite the winery’s youth.

MALBEC ZEMLIA DE LAS CASUARINAS

(Catalogue Product Code ALCZEMMAL750)

750ml bottle Malbec 100% (2009-2010) Premium single-variety wine. Grapes from the Uco Valley (La Consulta and Tunuyán), as well as Vistalba and Agrelo in the Central Area (Primera Zona, near Luján de Cuyo). Zemlia Malbec's personality is both young and modern, with predominant fresh fruit flavors and aromas, typical of altitude vineyards from the Uco Valley. This innovative wine surprises first by its bright and intense color. Then, it expresses itself in unique aromas, fresh and fruity, with a soft lasting sensation and a delicate final note. Ideal to match with any meal, especially grilled meat, pasta and hard cheese, but also more sophisticated and delicate meat dishes. Ready to serve between 15C and 18C temperature. Southlander 1 unit box, minimum order 1 box.

VETERIS CONVENTUS WINES

Veteris Conventus in latin means from the old abbey. This is the name of an old farm kept for more than 12 generation starting on 1640. Veteris Conventus wines are under strict surveillance and controlled environment throughout maturation, maceration, French oak steeping, bottling and storage. Veteris Conventus offers three great varieties of wine: Malbec, Tannat and Tempranillo, each variety exhibiting the best of their conventional characteristics.

TANNAT VETERIS CONVENTUS

(Catalogue Product Code ALCZEMMAL750)

750ml bottle Tannat 100% (2002) This Tannat is the pride of Veteris Conventus. Grapes come from Carrodilla in Lujan de Cuyo, Mendoza, Argentina. Over an altitude of 850 meters above sea level, right beside the Andes mountains, the stocks for this wine are 130 years old, and all is manually collected. The 2002 harvest produced 580 bottles. Julius Caesar introduced this wine of complex breeding to France, but was mainly forgotten due to its complicated formulation. When properly processed and finally created, this wine has characteristics like no other. The sweet tannins and balanced acids of this Tannat give the mouth an initial taste of great duration. To the nose, it gives a bouquet of forest fruits like gooseberry and raspberry along with those of subtle pear and pineapple. The scent of the French oak is also present as well as that of a sweet vanilla. This wine is ideal for game meat meals and complex casseroles. Ready to serve between 15C and 18C temperature. Southlander 1 unit box, minimum order 1 box.

TEMPRANILLO VETERIS CONVENTUS

Over an altitude of 850 meters above sea level, right beside the Andes mountains, the stocks for this wine are 130 years old, and is all manually collected. The 2002 harvest produced 7,040 bottles. Tempranillo is present in every fine Rioja Wine. Veteris Conventus Tempranillo presents an very intense red ruby color, clean and transparent as a fact of being resting for months in oak French casks, it has a very strong and complex personality and a fabulous nose. Vanilla is present along with chocolate and intense notes from forest fruits like strawberries, raspberries and ripped quinces, at the end is simple to recognize caramel and regalis. In the mouth it has a great and round structure very complex with fruit-bearing feedback. Ideal for any meal, poultry and cheese especially favoured. Ready to serve between 15C and 18C temperature. Southlander 1 unit box, minimum order 1 box.

MALBEC VETERIS CONVENTUS

(Catalogue Product Code ALCVETMAL750)

750ml bottle Malbec 100% (2002) Malbec is an Argentinian staple, Mendoza's finest, the Andean jewel. Grapes come from Carrodilla in Lujan de Cuyo, Mendoza, Argentina. Veteris Conventus Malbec has a clean and intense ruby-red hue, with vivid sparkling notes and great transparency. Gives a frank variety of odors, like those of fresh strawberries and ripe plums. Aromas resembling vanilla, tobacco and chocolate can also be recognized along with the agreeable notes of the French oak casks. To the mouth, the wine reveals itself with a strong structure that is complex with great feedback. This wine is ideal with a variety of game meats or meals. Ready to serve between 15C and 18C temperature. Southlander 1 unit box, minimum order 1 box.

PÁRAMO BRAUHAUS CRAFT BEER

German-Ecuadorian brewmasters started this brewhouse with a 200 liters-per-bake capacity , you can trace back its origins to Hahl's family Schlossbrauerei Traustadt in Bavaria. This craft beer brewery is located in Puenbo, Ecuador. In November 2013, this venture began with the development of recipes, using different malts and hops, experimenting with different styles of yeast and adapting to high altitude cooking. A local favorite, of strong german accent.

PALE ALE PÁRAMO BRAUHAUS CRAFT BEER

(Catalogue Product Code ALCPARPAL280)

280ml 6%ABV American-Style Pale Ale. It's decidedly a hop-forward brew, considerably bready. The pale malt sweetness lends some balance, while the dry and late hopping methods lend considerable hop strength to the aroma and flavor; besides the classic bitterness expected from a pale ale, appears a bit citrusy. Medium-bodied and moderately carbonated, smooth, very floral from start to finish. It has a gorgeous reddish caramel color, and distinctive floral aroma, the andean feedstock adds very particular notes to this perfectly balanced pale ale; water comes from natural springs of the Cotopaxi volcano, malt from the pacific coastal region of Ecuador; the word páramo is spanish for moor or highland, this could be considered one of the few Andes Pale Ales around. Southlander 6 unit box, minimum order 1 box. Ingredients: natural spring water, pale malt, cara malt, magnum hops, perle hops, cascade hops.

ALTBIER PÁRAMO BRAUHAUS CRAFT BEER

280ml 6%ABV Altbier. The beer world has many reasons to thank historic Germany, this particular Páramo Brauhaus Altbier, is like a unicorn outside the Rhineland and very uncommon in Southamerica; it would be more closely related to Northern German Altbier with a very nice roasty, malty, nutty, coffee-like flavor and aroma, yeasty, sweet and lightly hoppy/bittered ale. It has a very nice deep reddish copper color. Regarding its authenticity, this particular beer, truly has a personality of its own and is very well balanced, Páramo Brauhaus German-Ecuadorian craft beer brewmasters certainly perfected their recipe with local produce, it is an Andes Altbier; water comes from natural springs of the Cotopaxi volcano, malt from the pacific coastal region of Ecuador. Southlander 6 unit box, minimum order 1 box. Ingredients: natural spring water, munich malt, vienna malt, cara malt, hercules hops, mittelfruh hops, spalter selct hops.

REPÚBLICA DEL CACAO LIQUORS

República del Cacao started in 2005 when founders walked into a chocolate store in Paris and asked to try their finest chocolate. The assistant in the store brought them their most prized chocolate, telling them that it was the finest chocolate in the world. The brothers were amazed and excited - the cacao in this magical bar came from the Guayaquil region, the largest city in Ecuador. In that moment República del Cacao was born, with one mission: to locally produce the most authentic Latin American chocolate, by protecting sustainable fine cacao production.

PÁJARO AZUL 30% PROOF AGUARDIENTE

(Catalogue Product Code ALCLIQPAJ750)

750ml aguardiente spirit bottle. Pájaro Azul is an aguardiente, schnapps spirit, typical of the Andean region of Ecuador. This liquor originates from the province of Bolívar and is made from sugar cane, 30%ABV. The bluish hue comes from the refraction of the firmament through the liquid, hence its name Pájaro Azul or "blue bird". Its elaboration is ancestral and the variations of its ingredients have changed over time; local haciendas had different recipes and often competed each other. In the 60's and 70's, the enterprise of the Licorera de Bolívar Industrial Company, developed a "consensus" formula and it came to export the product to Colombia and Perú, under the name Anisado El Gato; Ecualliquors was born and the product remained in the local markets as it always been known: Pájaro Azul. Southlander 1 unit box, minimum order 1 box.

Ingredients: distilled natural spring distilled water, orange, mandarin, broth, gooseberry, anis leaves, ethyl distilled alcohol.
